TERMS OF DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY. One Year, $5.00; Three Months, $1.50; One Month, .50. No advertisements for less than one month.

Of course the irrepressible must be very indignant at the order to stop the shipments on the Nashville road without permit, and yet men who are not afflicted with the Secession insanity will not feel that any injury is done to the Southern Confederacy.

Kentucky should, herself, under a proper feeling of self-respect, refuse all trade with these States. They have obstructed her commerce, taxed and blockaded her ports, and refused to send cotton to the river, and back from Memphis goods shipped, and refused to send cotton to the river, and back from Memphis goods shipped, and refused to send cotton to the river, and back from Memphis goods shipped.

FROM THE SOUTHERN PAPERS.—The New Orleans Crescent of Wednesday says: The eighth regiment Louisiana volunteers, Col. Kelly, is to break camp this morning, and its way from Camp Moore to the battle fields of Virginia.

Numbers of companies have been enlisted in the State to serve in Louisiana. The Crescent gives us an account of no less than five murders and several shootings and stabbings in that city on the 15th, together with robberies and assaults innumerable.

The Congress of the Confederate States passed an ordinance forbidding the payment of all dues to States in the Union excepting Kentucky, Missouri, Delaware and Maryland, and makes agents collecting them liable to prosecution.

We have it from good authority that the first of the New Orleans and Liverpool line of steamers will leave the latter port in the month of August. We shall have peace only when we can whip them (the United States) or importation into a recognition of our rights, and a renunciation of their misdeeds.

One company of mounted men left Henderson, Texas, for Arkansas on the 6th of June. Don't become remiss now, Union men. Every day a battle is fought in men's opinions for the preservation of the State and the peace of the community.

Uniontown, Ky., was thrown into excitement last week by the assassination of two brothers, Samuel and Joseph Levi, who had succeeded in buying tobacco and barrowing money to the amount of fifteen or twenty thousand dollars, and then removed their assets amounting to only one thousand dollars. The creditors gave Mr. James Wallace two thousand dollars to track them up. They have not yet been caught.

It is understood among Secessionists that there was some mistake in the race the other day. Bruce withdrew from the contest the evening before election.

We read of the masterly rear movement of Gov. Jackson, of Missouri, at the battle of Booneville, with alarm. Comparing it with the recent elections in Kentucky, we see that secession runs better in that State than this.

Secessionism is cold as a wedge in Kentucky; inconceivable as Nicols, dead as Julius Caesar, and his chief apostles still shivering in the chilling breath of popular disapproval.

The Frankfort Yemas calls Magoffin a patriot. It must have a queer idea of patriotism. He has been aiming ever since the present troubles to drive Kentucky from the Union, and failed because he was weak as well as wicked.

When the secessionists said that the country should be purged of all the foul humors that afflicted the body politic, we must infer that it had reference to the political body of Gen. Price, of Missouri, and the unfortunate loomings which attacked him on the eve of a battle.

The Hon. John C. Breckinridge, it is said, will not take his seat in the next Senate. If he has any hesitation as to the propriety of declining to do so, we can assure him that the people will rejoice in his refusal, and he will be happy in having the State unanimous with the additional gratification that it is purely personal. Scarcely any other man as Senator, adopting a similar course, but would be universally condemned.

The Secessionists see nothing but subjugation of the South in the result of this war. The people are to be subjugated, that is the calamity. It is strange that they can't see any possibility of restoring the Union without subjugating people. Vanoy announced the process of getting States out of the Union. He would "precipitate" them. He has precipitated them, and all we want is to precipitate them back again. We expect not to subjugate, but to precipitate. Subjugation is all wrong, but precipitation is right and proper. We have Vanoy's authority for it.

SKETCH OF LETTERS, PARCASSION CASE AND CARTERIDGE.—On the arrival of the eleven o'clock train at Jeffersonville, on Friday night, the Port Wards, while examining the baggage of some of the passengers, chanced on an oil-cloth valise, which seemed rather weighty to contain nothing but wearing apparel. Diligent inquiry was made as to whom it belonged, but no one would acknowledge it. It was carried to the "bus" and exhibited to the passengers, all of whom repudiated it, although it was checked by the "bus" company to the Louisville Hotel. Failing to find an owner, the officer determined to see the contents, and forced it open. One side was full of letters for Southern points, among which were Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk, Augusta, Montgomery, Nashville, Memphis and New Orleans, and the other side was stuffed full of percussion caps and cartridges for pistols or breech-loading guns. The initials "A. S." were marked on one end, and on the other "A. Sterling, Virginia," which had been covered by pasting paper on it.

Public Speaking. Captain W. J. Meady, Union candidate for the Legislature, will address his fellow-citizens of Bullitt county at the following times and places: June 25th, Knob Creek Church; June 26th, Redley; June 27th, Shortsville; July 1st, Bareilly's Mills; July 2nd, L. H. Tavern; July 3rd, Pitt's Point.

Judge Carpenter is invited to attend. Speaking to commence each day at two o'clock P. M. To the Voters of Hardin County. Yellow-citizens: I have been for some time past a candidate for a seat in the Lower House of the next General Assembly of Kentucky. Owing to important business engagements, I have been unable as yet to canvass the county.

During this time I have united the selfish ends of certain interested parties to selfish ends extensively throughout the county a report that I have gone over to the secession party. This report is entirely false. I have done no such thing, nor have I said or done anything from which such a conclusion could be rationally or justly drawn. I stand just where I and the Union party have always stood, without the least shadow of wavering.

As soon as the people have ended their harvest, it is my purpose to make a thorough canvass of the county, and to meet the people of every neighborhood in the county, when they will have an opportunity of hearing and knowing for themselves my opinions. All I ask is that the people shall bear me before they pass judgment against me.

PERSON ON PASS.—"Funch, it seems, is taking care of little Paul. The joker says: Describing the debut of Macdonald's Patti, whose performance seemed to promise us a second Jenny Lind, one of the critics made the remark that she raised the house on a high pitch of excitement. On reading this, the Wisconsin, who chanced to be just then in one of his locations, mumbled to his friend Bernal: "Raised the house, did she? Why, really, then, she must be quite a Holter Patti."

Ed. Tracy, Esq., familiarly known as Ned Tracy, Clerk of the Land Court, and a worthy and highly respected citizen of St. Louis, was drowned yesterday while on a pleasure excursion on the river, in the "Eden" Club boat, in company with G. W. Alexander, Esq., Police Commissioner of St. Louis, and others. Mr. Tracy is stepping from the quarter deck of the boat, missed his foothold and fell into the river.

FRIDAY.—On the late Major General Sterling Price, who fell at the battle of Booneville, June 17, 1861. This notice (inserted, who knows, was composed by the late Major General.

A beautiful fish was presented to Captain Treason's company of Home Guards on Friday evening. It was made and presented to them by the married ladies of the First Ward.

The Mobile Register is getting dissatisfied. It says the Governor of Alabama has appointed a Major General for life, in defiance of the State Constitution.

TO MOLLIE. Remember me to Mollie. I have not forgotten you. I am not so busy as I was. I am not so busy as I was. I am not so busy as I was.

Interesting News. The Vincennes, at the Charleston navy yard, will probably sail Tuesday. The Nashville is ready to sail.

There was no change in the military status. Active operations were still kept up on both sides. Commander Brown had entirely completed his means of defense. The forts are in the best possible condition, and no fears were entertained of the rebel forces under Bragg, which our commander states are still very large, notwithstanding a portion of them have been detailed for service at some other point.

Fortress Monroe, June 21.—The regiment which yesterday made a reconnaissance towards Fort Belvoir, returned late in the evening, having gone to the neighborhood of Little Belvoir. They brought back intelligence of great importance. It is understood the Confederates are concentrating large forces at Yorktown. It is also to be seen that important movements are going on at Sewell's Point; also, at Willoughby Point, some six miles further down and opposite the Rip.

Washington, June 21.—The President has appointed the following United States Consuls: Wm. P. Nash, of Ky., at Stuttgart; Wm. Babb, of Tenn., at Tangier; Wm. H. Russell, of Mo., at Trinidad; Cuba: Charles J. Hendel, of Ill., at Santiago; Geo. T. T. of O., at Pinar del Rio; E. Vinton, of Wis., at Halifax; R. L. Barber, of N. Y., at Matanzas; A. S. Wolf, of Ind., at Havana.

Washington, June 22.—Speaker Allen, of Indiana, leaves here to-morrow for Indianapolis, to lay before Governor Morton a requisition of the War Department for four additional regiments from that State, to be taken from the First, Second and Third Congressional Districts. A large number of companies are already formed in that part of the State, and were organizing with a view of immediate service in these regiments.

An evidence of active war preparations, in the fact that Quarter-Master-General Meigs advertises for baggage wagons. A special to the N. Y. Herald says gentlemen here, who are in communication with the Unionists of East Tennessee, are of the opinion that the convention called to meet at Knoxville will pursue a course similar to that adopted by the Wheeling convention in Virginia.

They will repudiate the secession at Nashville, elect a Governor, and organize a State Government as near as possible in conformity with the provisions of the State Constitution, and call upon loyal men of Tennessee to rally to their support. The Union men want the fighting point. All they want from the Government is arms. When they have these they will take care of themselves, and close the Cumberland Gap Railroad against the rebels.

It has been the main source for reinforcements on every side of the rebel line. This movement will supply an entire regiment to the circle of Union men that is being gradually lightened around the rebels in Virginia.

We are informed that two young men are going about the city soliciting contributions for the Home Guard, and procuring money under false pretenses.
We caution the public against them. Let them know full well to whom their contributions are given.

Wm. Stanley, an orator of the Secessionists, who spoke at Shelbyville the day before the election, was in 1858 elected City Attorney in Leavenworth City, Kansas Territory, by the Black Republican. His competitor was a Democrat.

RENT.—In the present dearth of amusements it is gratifying to know that we are to have an entertainment on next Tuesday which will command the attention of all amusement-lovers. Mr. Henry Watson, who will be favorably remembered as a young gentleman of fine promise, a good student, a deserving and industrious actor, and, withal, a person of fine manners and good address, will on next Tuesday evening present his claims for a dramatic benefit at McIntire Hall. His assistants are Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. H. Cook, Miss Endres, and several other acknowledged favorites. Miss Endres will gratify the audience with a display of vocal power rarely equalled, and certainly not excelled by any lady in the city. It may be said of her as Terrence said of Cleopatra:

"Her swelling voice, a type of wild range Struck like lightning, and fell down and came From heaven to earth, and filled with all Of liveliest utterance."

Mr. Watson's claims, supported as they will be by such a host of talented performers, cannot fail to be recognized by the whole public. We shall have occasion again to call attention to this subject.

It has been suggested to us to call a Convention of the Union men of the Legislative District composed of the First and Tenth Wards for Tuesday evening, July 3d, for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent that District in the Legislature.

DIED OF HIS WOUNDS.—John Quigley, the man who was out on Tuesday night last by Pat. Coyle, died of his wounds on Saturday morning. Coyle will have an examination before Judge Johnson to-morrow morning.

An election took place yesterday afternoon for field officers of the East Regiment of the Home Guard, as follows: Colonel, A. M. Stout; Lieutenant-Colonel, James P. Campbell; Major, Capt. Jim Hamilton.

The attention of farmers is called to Mr. C. C. Spencer's advertisement of a Manny's patent mowing and reaping machine, to be sold without reserve on Tuesday next.

The Jeffersonville train and the Ohio and Mississippi train missed their connection at Seymour to-day. Hence we are without our Eastern exchanges in time for the evening edition.

THE FIRST WARD HOME GUARD presented with a beautiful silk flag by the ladies of that ward, at the house of Mrs.

John H. Hyberger. It was presented on behalf of the ladies by R. A. Hamilton, Esq., in a neat and patriotic address, and was received by Captain John L. Treasurer.
In the following neat and appropriate words:

With great pleasure we accept this gift from the patriotic ladies of the First Ward; this emblem of our country's greatness and glory. Under these stars and stripes our fathers won our liberty, and established the Constitution which has ever protected us in our political and civil rights. We never will prove recreant sons of our worthy sires, but stand ever ready to defend the flag of our country from foreign or domestic foes. This flag will be dear to us because it is the evidence of the patriotism of our mothers, wives, and daughters, and the unmistakable evidence of their love for Union; and we pray you, sir, to assure them that the arms of the First Ward Home Guard will prove a rejoice for them in any time of trial, and every breast will be glad to see the stars and stripes of the emblem of our flag or country.
Accept, sir, our thanks, for the gallant manner in which you have presented this beautiful gift of the ladies of the First Ward.

After the close of the address, thirty-four young ladies, dressed in white, sang the Star-Spangled Banner and various other National songs.

Significance.—The wife and daughter of Colonel J. B. Magruder, who commands the Confederate batteries at Great Bethel, have gone to Boston.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says the six pickets from the camp at Gratton who had been sent into the country back of Philadelphia, captured several straggling rebels, among whom was an Governor Joseph Johnson, who was attired in full regimentals. His arrival excited quite a sensation in Gratton.

John McBride, who was convicted at the present term of the Criminal Court, through his counsel, made a motion for a new trial, which was overruled. The prisoner was brought into Court at half past three o'clock for the purpose of having a plea entered in his behalf, but from a plea of insanity offered by his counsel, the Judge thought it proper to suspend sentence until October next.

A CINCINNATI PRINTER KILLED.—We had an account in one of the Leavenworth city papers of the death of R. C. Satterlee, formerly of Cincinnati, and an old printer.
He was the publisher of the Herald in Leavenworth, and it seems, on the 13th inst., he got into a quarrel with D. B.
Anthony, proprietor of the Conservative.
They met on the street and exchanged pistol shots, which resulted in Satterlee's receiving a shot in his right side, which caused his death. Mr. Satterlee was a man much admired by his acquaintances and esteemed by his friends.

General, is on a visit to his family in Texas.

TERMINAL AFFAIR.—Our town was the theater of a most terrible tragedy on yesterday, resulting, we fear, in the death of one of our citizens, and as officer of the county. At about six o'clock this morning Mr. M. R. Everett entered his dwelling of Charles O. Thompson, where a difficulty occurred between him and Mr. Thompson, concerning Mr. Thompson's nativity to the city and county. At about six o'clock this morning Mr. M. R. Everett entered his dwelling
of Charles O. Thompson, where a difficulty occurred between him and Mr. Thompson, city and county.

Mr. Thompson, who is the jailer of our county, is now expected to recover from his wounds. He is suffering intensely, but is bearing up as well as could be expected.
Mr. Sterling Wigg, 21st.

Quartermaster Vajen, arrived yesterday morning from New York and Monterey. He informs us that he has purchased about 3,000 Enfield and Sharpe's rifles, 500 Colt's army revolvers, 300 sabres, and three tons of powder. He brings with him as a trophy, a chain-shot taken from the privateer Savannah.

A spy was taken in the Peninsula Navy Yard, a few nights since, in the act of exchanging signals with Pickens by means of lanterns. He was put in irons, but obstinately refused to give any account of himself.
